

WRRC
WEST REGIONAL ROWING COUNCIL

British Rowing Safeguarding and Protecting Children Workshop

Wed 12th May 2010

Venue: Victoria Inn, Roche

Time: 6.30pm-9.30pm

Cost: £15 per person

British Rowing, in conjunction with the West Regional Rowing Council, CPGA and CRA are running a Safeguarding and Protecting Children workshop, in Cornwall on Wednesday 12th May.

The workshop is endorsed by the NSPCC, and is the recommended training for all Club Welfare Officers, coaches and other volunteers working with young people in clubs. Topics covered include British Rowing/CPGA policies and procedures, CRB checking, and receiving and reporting procedures for child welfare issues within clubs.

To book your place on the course please complete an application form and return along with a cheque for £15 payable to the 'WRRC' to the address below;

Tom Pattichis - Room Lower East 18, Seale-Hayne Campus, University of Plymouth, Newton Abbot, Devon, TQ12 6NQ

01626333020 - 07818576145 - tom.pattichis@britishrowing.org

Application deadline: Friday 26th March 2010